

KOACH, the college program of The United Synagogue of Conservative Judaism, invites you to the Twentieth Annual KOACH Kallah, March 4-March 7, 2010 at the Pearlstone Conference and Retreat Center in Reisterstown, MD.

Students from campuses throughout North America will come together for a weekend of learning, sharing and friendship. Rabbi Leonard Gordon, co-chair of the USCJ Commission on Social Justice and Public Policy and rabbi of the Germantown Jewish Centre, will be our scholar-in-residence. Community service projects, an update on Israeli current events and a taste of Los Angeles will round out the program. There will be time to meet in small groups and network with students from across the continent.

Accommodations will be provided at the Pearlstone Conference and Retreat Center. There will be three to four people in each room and meals are included. The cost for the Kallah (not including transportation) is $250. Early bird registration by January 8th is only $200.

Register no later than February 5th, 2010. Space cannot be guaranteed after that time. Upon receipt of your application and deposit, additional details will be sent to you. Should you need to cancel your Kallah reservation, please note that refunds will only be available until February 12th, 2010.

Plan to arrive in Baltimore by 5:00 p.m. on Thursday, March 4. Bus transportation (for a nominal fee) will be available from BWI to Pearlstone, as well as on the return. The Kallah will conclude at 11:00 a.m. on Sunday, March 7.
