Solomon Schechter Award Guidelines

Please review and follow these guidelines when applying for a Solomon Schechter award. Entries must be in our hands by the deadline of 5:00 pm Eastern time, Monday, April 17, 2009.

1. United Synagogue's Solomon Schechter Awards program recognizes congregations, not subgroups or affiliates. Therefore, please be sure that all entries are submitted by the congregation. We do not accept submissions from separate departments, programs, or people from the congregation.
2. Multiple entries are allowed but only one entry per award category. Please choose the category for each entry based on the printed guidelines and criteria, and indicate that category on the application.
3. You may put more than one entry in a box, but each entry must have its own application. You may copy the application form or download the application from [www.uscj.org] if you need more application forms.
4. Entries are accepted and judged based on your responses to the guidelines and criteria in each of the award category. We provide guidelines and criteria to simplify the application process and to help the judges to evaluate entries. You need not respond to every item in the guidelines. You may describe your entry in narrative form; be sure to include samples of all supporting materials. We encourage materials be submitted in green formats. Provide as much in electronic [CD or DVD] media as possible. The web site awards must be submitted in electronic form.
5. Only congregations in good financial standing as of JUNE 30, 2009 are eligible to receive an award.
6. Each entry must meet the basic criteria stipulated for its award category. To win an award, an entry must demonstrate extraordinary characteristics or unusual and outstanding aspects that go beyond the expected norms. Entries within award and congregational size categories are compared to each other.
7. We plan to award one gold and one silver award for each congregational size division for each category.
8. Please note: Materials submitted will not be returned. All submissions become the property of the United Synagogue of Conservative Judaism for its use. United Synagogue reserves the right to use materials from the submissions, in whole or in part, with appropriate credit, in materials to be produced or distributed by United Synagogue
9. Award-winning entries will be on display at United Synagogue's biennial convention in December 2009. We strongly encourage representatives from the award-winning congregations to attend the convention to accept the awards and to share information about the programs.
10. Applications must include an executive summary (with a maximum of 2-3 brief paragraphs) on the summary form sheet on the reverse side of the application.
11. The application must be signed as indicated on the application form.
12. Applications and supporting materials must be shipped by delivery services that allow for package tracking (such as Federal Express, USPS Priority Mail or UPS). Materials MUST be in our possession by the deadline of April 17, 2009. Entries, which include application, supporting material and summary, must be sent to:
Solomon Schechter Awards - The United Synagogue of Conservative Judaism
Rapaport House – 10th Floor
820 Second Avenue, New York, NY 10017

IV. PROGRAMS

JUDAICA AND FINE ARTS

In many synagogues today, we find the use of visual arts presentations, as well as sophisticated art programming, enhance the congregation's physical appearance and educate members as to the role of art in Jewish life. Such programs often include periodic displays of Jewish or Israeli art, Sukkah beautification projects, artwork for use in the synagogue created by congregants, a synagogue museum, or rotating art exhibits in a permanent display area for items on loan from other Jewish organizations. The Solomon Schechter Award for Judaica and Fine Arts is awarded for ongoing arts program or programming, not a single piece of art.

1. Describe the ongoing program designed to bring creative visual arts materials to the membership on a regular basis.
2. Is there a congregational Jewish museum open at specific times and accessible to the congregation?
3. Describe any courses on Judaic arts included in the adult education program.
4. Does the congregation have an art committee that coordinates the artwork on display, establishing criteria for art pieces that are accepted as donations, etc.?
5. Does the congregational school have an ongoing program of Jewish art education? Are the children's artworks displayed?

Please explain how the congregation's art program expresses or depicts authentic Jewish concepts, observances, social values, and historical or Biblical events or personalities. Describe the nature and extent of involvement by the membership, and the general community, in the program. Describe how the program has fostered a greater awareness among these groups of the role of art in Jewish life.
